

Bullying and Harassment in Schools

Bullying and Harassment in our schools is taken very seriously but despite the Government's commitment to tackling the issue, bullying in schools still continues to happen. Bullying is not a normal part of growing up, can ruin lives and should not be tolerated.

Schools are required to have anti-bullying policies and it has been made compulsory for schools to have measures in place to encourage good behaviour and respect for others on the part of school pupils and to prevent all forms of bullying.

Children should not be scared of going to school; and parents should not have the fear of sending their children to school.

This course will help to tackle bullying head on and to help to put the bullying and harassment policies and strategies into action.

Who should attend?

This course is ideal for School Teachers, Head Teachers, concerned parents and guardians, pupils and Parent Teacher Associations and School Governors.

Aksaa can work with you to design and deliver training programmes which are tailor-made to your requirements.

The fee is £150 plus VAT per delegate or £1500 plus VAT plus expenses, for up to 20 delegates for an in-house course.

Course objective

By the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Raise awareness of the effects of bullying and harassment at School.
- Underline the importance of an environment where everyone feels safe from bullying and harassment.
- Discuss legal frameworks on bullying and harassment in the school context.
- Identify and discuss tactics used to bully and harass others.
- Explore the different role teachers and schools can play in eliminating that bullying and harassment.
- Demonstrate how to deal with cases of bullying and harassment.
- Case studies will be discussed and explored.

To find out about our other courses please check out our website: www.aksaa.co.uk or contact our offices on 01924 466117.